SSC CGL 2026 Selection Process

The SSC CGL (Staff Selection Commission Combined Graduate Level) examination is a multi-tier exam conducted to recruit candidates for various Group B and Group C posts in the Indian government.

1. Tier I – Preliminary Examination

The first stage of the selection process will be the preliminary examination. The exam will be objective-type in nature and will consist of four sections: General Intelligence, General Awareness, Quantitative Aptitude, and English Comprehension. The preliminary test is qualifying in nature. Candidates shortlisted in this stage will be called for the next stage i.e. Mains Examination. The SSC CGL Preliminary Examination is conducted for a total of 200 marks within a specified time frame of 60 minutes.

2. Tier II – Main Examination

Tier II exam is also a computer-based test with several papers, depending on the post applied for. The Paper-I is compulsory for all and consists of questions from Quantitative Abilities, Reasoning, English, and General Awareness. Paper II (for JSO) and Paper III (for SI Grade-II) test statistical and economic knowledge respectively. The marks of Tier II are important for final selection.

3. Document Verification (DV)

Candidates shortlisted after Tier II will have to appear for the Document Verification with their original certificates for the verification of all the details submitted during the filling of application form.

4. Final Selection

The final selection is based on the marks which is obtained in Tier II (and Tier I for some posts). Candidates will be allotted posts based on their merit and post preferences.

SSC CGL 2026 Exam Pattern

Understanding the SSC CGL exam pattern is essential for candidates to plan their preparation effectively. The exam is conducted in two tiers that are Tier 1 and Tier 2, with each stage having multiple sections. Here's a detailed overview of the SSC CGL 2026 exam pattern for both tiers. Here is the table for the Scheme of SSC CGL Tier-I Examination.

SSC CGL Tier I Exam Pattern

The SSC CGL Tier I Exam consists of 25 questions in each section. Each question will be of 2 Marks. The duration of the exam will be 1 Hour.
